Dear Members of the Green School Family,

Please join me on the occasion of the retirement of Professor Jorge Salazar-Carrillo in expressing sincere gratitude for his more than 40 years of service to Florida International University. Dr. Salazar-Carrillo's tenure in the Department of Economics for the last four decades has contributed towards advancing the reputation of both the department and the university.

Dr. Salazar-Carrillo served as the Chair of the Department of Economics for approximately one decade and was instrumental in the creation of the economics Masters and Doctoral degree programs for the university. He founded the Center of Economic Research and Education and produced countless publications as a prolific researcher over the years. Professor Salazar was a Senior Fellow at the Brookings Institute (1965-1979), <https://www.brookings.edu/about-us/>. He has represented the university numerous times in the media as a top expert in the field.

As a scholar and professional, Dr. Salazar-Carrillo's track record speaks for itself. He has served in a variety of prestigious positions over the years, including as a consultant for the U.S. Treasury and State Department, member of the Council of Economic Advisors for the State of Florida, member of the Executive Board of the Cuban American National Counsel, First Vice President of the Collegium of Cuban Economists, Director at the United Nations Development Program Mission in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, and Director of the Cuban Banking Study Group, among others. This impressive roster of professional activity has contributed to building the reputation of our institution.
